WATCH COMMANDER'S SHIFT REPORT

DATE: April 10, 2023

TIME: 0700-0700

DAY: Monday

THE FOLLOWING CASES ONLY REFLECT A PARTIAL LIST OF ACTUAL CASES TAKEN. CALLS FOR SERVICE NOT GENERATING WRITTEN REPORTS ARE NOT USUALLY LISTED. ALL THOSE ARRESTED ARE PRESUMED INNOCENT UNTIL PROVEN GUILTY

Towed Vehicle: On April 10, 2023, at 9:12 AM, parking enforcement towed a 2001 Mazda MPV van from John Muir Parkway at San Pablo Ave. The Mazda had been previously tagged and determined to be abandoned. H23-00363

Fraud: On April 10, 2023, at 9:11 AM, an Officer was dispatched to a lobby detail regarding fraud. The adult female was contacted and determined to be the victim of an advertisement pop-up/ phone scam. The victim was on her computer when a virus popped on her screen stating to contact a phone number pretending to be Apple Support. She contacted the phone number and spoke to a subject who led her to believe her bank account was compromised and that her bank was in on it. Under instruction of the subject, the victim purchased a large dollar amount of Bitcoin and transferred it to the subject so that the subject could safely hold her money. There are no leads for the subject. H23-00364

Vehicle Vs. Bicyclist: On April 10, 2023, at 12:30 PM, Officers were dispatched to a vehicle versus a bicyclist on Bayfront Blvd at Sanderling. Upon arrival, the bicyclist had a large gash in his right elbow and several other lacerations on his body. The driver was on scene with no injuries. The collision occurred when the bicyclist was traveling northbound on Bayfront Blvd and a 2012 Dodge Charger was turning east onto Sanderling from southbound Bayfront Blvd. The bicyclist struck the front end of the Charger and went into the windshield and then over the roof of the vehicle. The bicyclist was transported to John Muir Walnut Creek for his injuries. H23- 00365

Criminal Threats / Stalking: On April 10, 2023, at 7:01 PM, an officer responded to a lobby detail regarding threats and stalking. The victim stated she had an affair with the suspect, 43 year old male out of Vallejo, who was a subcontractor that did work on her house. When the victim recently called off her relationship with the suspect he immediately began stalking and threatening her via email. The victim further explained, she was sexually assaulted by the suspect a year ago in Vallejo. The victim provided pictures and emails to support her allegations. The officer contacted a judge who granted an Emergency Protective Order (EPO) for the victim. The officer was not able to contact the suspect but sent a photo of the EPO to his cell phone number and email address. The victim was advised to call immediately if she is alerted of the suspect's presence around her home. The officer provided a courtesy follow for her back to her home from HPD. The investigation is ongoing. H23-00366.
