Miscellaneous Information: On August 13, 2023, at 10:37 pm, officers responded to the 1700 block of John Muir Pkwy for a domestic dispute. The Reporting Party (RP), 48 year old male, stated he and his wife, 42 year old female subject (SUB), got into a verbal argument, and she left the residence in her vehicle with their 9-month-old son. While officers were on scene, a second call came out from SUB, requesting officers to meet with her at the Shell gas station. Both SUB and RP made slightly conflicting statements, but individually stated they were in a verbal argument which elevated to physical contact in the presence their son. Neither person desired prosecution against the other and agreed to separate for the night. There was insufficient evidence to determine probable cause for an arrest of a dominant aggressor at this time. Case taken for documentation and notification to Child and Family Services. H23-00816.
