On September 8, 2023 at 9:28 AM officers were dispatched to the 100 block of Hawk for a report of a domestic violence. The reporting party stated her 18 year old daughter called her. The daughter said she was being assaulted by her 20 year old boyfriend. The incident was occurring at the residence on Hawk. The victim told her mother the suspect was refusing to allow her leave the house and take their 20 day old infant child. Officers arrived on scene and established a perimeter around the home. Announcements were made, for several minutes, requesting all occupants exit the residence. No response came from the occupants; however, movement was seen in several windows. After several minutes of additional announcements, with no response, an officer breached the front door. The officer again requested the occupants to exit. After several minutes a 20 year old male, later identified as the suspect, exited the home advising no one else was in the home. The subject was detained. Several more announcements were made and a 18 year old female, later identified as the victim, with an infant, exited the home. The victim had swelling, bruising, and lacerations to her face. The child appeared to be uninjured. Several additional announcements were given. Two males, 18 and 19, exited the residence and were detained.

Officers made entry and cleared the home determining it was unoccupied. The victim was interviewed, and it was determined the suspect had slapped, pushed, strangled, and threatened to kill her. The victim further informed officers the suspect has a gun somewhere in the home. A Records check determined the suspect is on searchable felony probation for assault with a deadly weapon. A probable cause/probation search was conducted which resulted in the discovery of a short barreled, un-serialized rifle, with a 40 round magazine. The 18 and 19 year old males were interviewed and released. The suspect was arrested and transported to the Martinez Detention Facility. An Emergency Protective Order was granted, and the suspect was served. H23-00916
