Outside Asist for CHP – Rollover Collision: On October 15, 2023 at 5:00 AM Hercules officers were advised of a solo rollover vehicle collision on Highway 80 East near Cummings Skyway. CHP was responding but their arrival time was extended. Per CHP dispatch, the driver was a mother who was trapped in the overturned vehicle. The mother advised her 1 year old and 2 year old children were also trapped in the vehicle. At this time, injuries were unknown. Hercules officers, and Contra Costa Deputies, responded. Officers located the vehicle, approximately 20 yards off the freeway, upside down in a field. Officers and Deputies successfully extracted the two children and the mother. Officers shut down the freeway and began to conduct traffic control. The mother and her children were evaluated by medical personnel on scene. CHP eventually arrived on scene and began their collision investigation. Hercules officers utilized their drone, with thermal imaging, to confirm there were no outstanding parties which were possibly ejected. No other parties were located. The children and their mother were seemingly uninjured. All parties were transported to the hospital via ambulance, as a precaution. Incident # 23-0029
